STAT

Thank you for your letter of 4 March in which you offer to provide your cypher system to this Agency. We very much appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to us concerning this matter.

However, the proper authority to evaluate and discuss the system with you is the National Security Agency, located at Fort George G. Meade, Maryland, and I suggest you contact them directly. You may be assured that they will treat your information with proper care and circumspection.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
General, USAF

I appreciate very much the thought that went into your letter of 4 March. However, since your subject is in a highly technical field, may I suggest that a more thorough evaluation of it might be obtained from the National Security Agency, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland. You may be assured that they will treat your information with the care and circumspection it deserves.

Please accept our thanks for your voluntary and constructive efforts.

Sincerely yours,

C. P. Cabell
